ADMISSIONS

New York

Avni Patel is a formidable litigator and trial attorney, nationally recognized for safeguarding individuals and corporate clients through their most complex, sensitive, and high-profile legal challenges. With a commanding presence in federal, state, and local courts, Avni specializes in government and internal investigations, white-collar criminal defense, and intricate civil litigation including complex commercial and employment matters.

Avni approaches each matter with a strategic blend of incisive legal acumen, meticulous preparation, and profound empathy, understanding that a strong client relationship is paramount to a successful defense, particularly when stakes are highest. She is a highly sought-after and meticulous investigator, leading critical reviews for government entities and corporations alike. Clients facing white-collar allegations benefit from Avni's extensive trial and investigative experience. In civil matters, Avni applies her litigation skills to both prosecuting and defending cases. She strategically navigates settlement negotiations and litigation, always prioritizing client objectives and constraints.

Prior to joining WMHW, Avni honed her trial advocacy as an Assistant District Attorney in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office, trying over a dozen felony and misdemeanor cases to verdict, including five jury verdicts. As the appointed Bias Assistant District Attorney, she partnered with the city's Hate Crime Task Force to prosecute hate crimes in Bronx County.

Avni is also a co-founder of WMHW's Women's Initiative, a platform dedicated to fostering gender equality and empowering rising women leaders within the legal, political, entertainment, and local communities.
